Under the direction of Marcy A. Sudock and with the collaboration of United World Concert Tours, a selection of professional and highly talented orchestral performers from California are coming together in London to celebrate the forthcoming Royal Wedding. Ms Sudock has been a professional performing violinist for more than forty years as well as being an accomplished and sought after conductor and arranger, performing to sold-out audiences worldwide. Guest performers will include some of London's finest musicians plus harpist and composer Stephanie Bennett and the world renowned Fanfares d'Elegance trumpeters.

Guest Narrator Mark Sudock has performed as an interviewer, spokesman, narrator, on-camera host and Master of Ceremonies in more than 400 productions as well as being winner of numerous Golden Mike, Associated Press and Emmy® honors for both producing and editing.

The Concert is told as a Musical Romantic Fairytale including British and American favourites such as:

Barber - Adagio for Strings ♦ Bernstein - One Hand, One Heart ♦ Strayhorn - Take the A Train

Balmages - Danza Latina featuring ♦ Rezinacow - American Sketches ♦ Jenkins - Palladio

Copland - Hoedown from Rodeo ♦ Morricone - Gabriel's Oboe, featuring oboist Linda Muggeridge

WORLD PREMIER by American composer, Edward David Zelif - In Memory Of, featuring cellist Manon Robertshaw

All proceeds to The Soup Kitchen at the American Church, London; a vital resource for the homeless, impoverished and lonely in central London. By offering basic necessities in a welcoming and non-judgmental environment they are helping to build a more inclusive and stable society for everyone. Established in 1986, The Soup Kitchen now serves 12,000 free hot meals and hands out 3,500 items of clothing per year with the help of over 70 volunteers.
